

To whom this may concern,

I am writing to you today to apply for the positions of QA/QC and Cannabinoid Research Scientist at PhytoSciences Consultants. I am completing my doctoral dissertation at Saint Louis University School of Medicine in Pharmacology & Physiology in August. After spending nearly a decade in an academic laboratory investigating , I am eager to break into the cannabis industry utilizing my knowledge in Pharmacology and Neuroscience along with my passion for working in a laboratory setting. With cannabis legalization sweeping the United States, as well as other nations, our abilities to decipher the mysteries of cannabinoids and terpenes. By understanding more about the compounds that have helped millions manage their ailments, we can limit the reliance on pharmaceuticals that result in dangerous secondary effects.

Please review the enclosed resume and references, and consider my application to join your exciting and innovative team. I am confident that upon reviewing my resume you will see how valuable of an employee I could be for you. I perform exceptionally in collaborations while also being equally effective as an individual.

I look forward to exchanging ideas with you concerning a career at PhytoSciences Consultants and the positive contributions we could provide to the cannabis industry.

Thank you for your consideration,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Parag Bhatt', with a stylized flourish at the end.

Parag Bhatt